

Insight Meditation Houston

Application for a Scholarship

Non-residential Retreat

Money for retreat scholarships comes from weekly voluntary collections of the members of the IMH sangha. The following guidelines for retreat scholarships will apply: A scholarship will be for no more than 50% of the cost of the retreat. It will not cover dana (voluntary donations to the teacher). Priority will be given to active members of the sangha who are in financial need. It will not normally be granted to the same person for successive retreats.

Your name _____

E-mail _____

Address _____

Telephone Number _____

Name of the retreat you want to attend _____

Date and place of the retreat _____

Your employment status:

____ full time, ____ part time, ____ unemployed, ____ student ____ retired.

What percentage of retreat costs do you need covered?

____ 15% ____ 25% ____ 50%

How frequently do you attend the Monday or Tuesday IMH Sangha?

What form of meditation do you practice, and how frequently?

How many retreats have you attended? _____

Where were they?

Would you be willing to stay after the retreat to help clean up?

If you have other information you believe would be helpful to the committee in making its decision, please write it below.

Submit this application on or before April 29, 2017 to:

Insight Meditation Houston
503 Fargo Street
Houston, TX 77006

-or-

Email: meditationhouston@gmail.com

The advisory board will review your request and inform you of its decision 2 weeks before the beginning of the retreat.